Castings plant has potential new use but its future remains uncertain

(First of two articles)
Is there "life after death" for the once-busy General Steel Industries Castings plant in Granite City?

Founded as the Commonwealth Steel plant here in July 1962, and closed in late 1973, the giant industry was the subject of arbitration hearings ending Friday at the Bel Air

West in St. Louis. At stake are the extent of benefits for terminated employees, a ruling is anticipated during the fall.

Once a contender for a new Volkswagen auto production plant, the idle facility here subsequently was acquired by Granite City Steel, National Steel Corporation. A discontinued Chrysler Corp. plant at New Stanton, Pa., is to get the VW assembly line, it was decided this spring.

Despite GC Steel's purchase of the General Steel plant and limited use of it for classroom and other purposes, its utilization for expanded production activity remains in doubt for several reasons.

1. Capital funds remain tight among steelmakers and National Steel is committed to developing the Midwest Steel (Portage, Ind.) fabricating plant into a fully-integrated steel mill.

2. House Bill 3908 pending in the state legislature would prevent added industrial-commercial activity in floodplain areas without an elaborate permit system regarded as virtually impossible to complete. Although this area is amply levee-protected, the legislation nearing passage ignores such a factor.

3. Despite vast expenditures by Granite City Steel and other firms to reduce air particulates, current regulations place a severe limit on new production proposals.

4. Pending Madison County land use revisions indicate that a no-construction zone between Highways 111 and 157 is to be extended westward to the Great River Road (Federal Aid Route 151). It was disclosed at last week's June board meeting of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

There was no thought of such regulations when the Commonwealth plant was built as a pioneer local industrial firm. Produced body bolsters and truck frame sections for mammoth freight cars, it prospered as the railroad network grew.

Clarence M. Howard and Harry M. Pfleger bought it in 1904 and Howard continued as president until 1929, when Commonwealth was sold to the year-old General Steel Castings Corp. Harrison Mobitzelle and then Charles Powell Whitehead took the reins of the firm.

At one time, the local plant employed as many as 5,500 persons. It produced 45,000 tons of tank turrets and hulls during World War II.

Next: The controversial demise.

Week-long events for Bicentennial

In conjunction with the nation's Bicentennial celebration, the Granite City Park District is planning a week of festivities to be climaxed with a large fireworks display on Sunday, July 4. Harold Brown, park district superintendent, announced this week.

An all-day picnic, community religious service variety, church and country western shows and midway rides and concessions also are among the events scheduled.

The local observance will begin on Sunday, July 27, with a Community Religious Service to be held at 2:30 p.m. at the Wilson Park Ice Rink.

Arrangements for the service are being made through the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association under the direction of the Rev. Roy Baugh, pastor of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

A special Bicentennial "Music Under the Stars" program is planned at 8 p.m. Tuesday, June 29, at the ice rink.

Ethnic events June 19, 20

Ethnic events loom large in U.S. Bicentennial planning throughout the nation, and major programs are scheduled here for the weekend of June 19-20.

St. Gregory Armenian Church plans a Bicentennial dance at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 19, at the Mexican Honorary Commission Hall, 1801 Spruce St.

There will be authentic Armenian food and pastries, and traditional music by the Chicago Gomidas ensemble. At 3 p.m. Sunday, June 20, at Holy Trinity Hall, 1245 Madison Ave., Madison, the Macedonian Bulgarian Ladies Aid Society will present a needlework, arts and crafts festival, including examples of "old world" attire and modeling of hand-made clothes. Macedonian pastries are planned, and there will be music and dancing.

several foreign countries will be featured and this promises to be a real gourmet treat," he added.

George Amiah, in charge of music and entertainment, reported that several musical groups already have signed up, including "Happy Strings," "Junior Tamburitians," "Danica Tamburitians," "Little Cosacks," and the "Balkan Orchestra with Russian Folk Dancers."

Amiah said that several other groups have expressed interest, including polka and modern dance bands.

"Our event will be educational, historical, interesting and fun for everyone regardless of age," Gushieff noted.

Madison festival will last 3 days

A three-day ethnic Bicentennial celebration will be held in Madison on July 2, 3, and 4 on the St. Mary's church grounds.

"America is known as the melting pot, and we in Madison feel that this nation has become great largely due to the many ethnic cultures that have contributed to our freedom and way of life," William Gushieff, chairman of the event, said.

In keeping with the Bicentennial, we will have a celebration in Madison that will be of real interest to people in the whole area.

"Several ethnic groups will have booths of a cultural nature to add to the fun. There will be music, dancing and games for all ages," Gushieff said.

"Special foods native to to continue the celebration. Starting Wednesday, June 30, the traditional Fourth of July carnival and concession stands will open in Wilson Park, beginning at 6 p.m.

Woman, 76, molested

A 76-year-old Granite City woman told police at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where she was admitted for observation.

The living room of the victim's house was in a state of disarray.

The victim gave authorities a name she alleged was her attacker. Officers found a man in a car in the 3800 block of Kirkpatrick at 3:30 a.m. today and arrested him.

Shot accidentally

Ezell Mallet, 1037 Calhoun St., Venice, suffered an accidental gunshot wound to the right arm at 11:50 p.m. Sunday, and was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Venice police said Mallet told them he was showing a .22 caliber pistol to a friend at his home when it accidentally discharged.

Aerial bombs at parade prompt pet to flee

Aerial bombs and blaring bands during Thursday night's Anand Shrine parade in Granite City are believed by Mrs. Julia Guithes, 2429 Washington Ave., to have caused the family dog to "panic" and flee the area, to the sorrow of her three small sons.

Mrs. Guithes said the dog, "Tippy," a border collie, apparently jumped the fence at the family residence while she and the three boys, Chris, 8, Sam, 6, and Robert, 3, were watching the parade along Madison Avenue two blocks

Revenue bond plan seen as too expensive

TWELFTH OF A SERIES

Revenue bonds offer no alternative for Quad-City area sanitary sewer construction because their cost to home owners would be prohibitive, Harry E. Hartman, attorney for the sewer project, said after a meeting Thursday afternoon at Edwardsville with bond firm representatives.

But projections disclosed by Hartman indicated that the proposed general obligation bond issue will be considerably cheaper than revenue bonds.

Revenue bonds involve higher interest rate and larger discount costs, as well as greater allowances for non-payment losses, the attorney related.

Participating in the meeting under arrangements by Mrs. Ruth Andrews, a precinct committeewoman who opposes taxation for sewers, were Eugene Reese of Newhard, Cook & Co. and Paul Williams of John Niven & Co.

Wauterick & Brown Co. of Chicago is the fiscal advisor for the sewer project, which was developed by the Madison County Board and offers 75 percent state-federal financial help.

The County Board's special sewer committee agreed to the meeting at the suggestion of Mrs. Andrews but has indicated it favors competitive bidding for bond sales.

Hartman related that revenue bonds were the first method considered by the sewer planners before being rejected

Dies of burns

Dannial Strubberg, 4, of 3205 Maryville Road, died Friday afternoon in St. Louis Children's Hospital of burns received when his pajamas caught fire in his home at 8:10 a.m. Thursday.

He suffered burns on 90 percent of his body.

The boy was taken from his home to St. Elizabeth Hospital and then transferred to the St. Louis hospital.

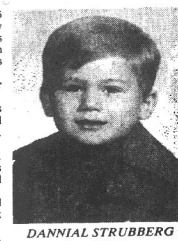

The child's stepmother, Mrs. Sharon Strubberg, said she was in bed when she heard the child scream.

She said she ran to him to find his pajamas in flames and most of them already burned off.

He pulled them off him, burning her hands, and called an ambulance.

Mrs. Strubberg was treated for cuts to her hands and was released.

The boy is survived by his father, George Strubberg, of

Parade attracts large gathering

An estimated 25,000 Quad-Cityans turned out Thursday night to view the annual Shrine Parade in Granite City—a prelude to the Shrine Circus which will open here Wednesday for a three-night run at Tri-City Speedway, 3100 Namecki Road.

Despite threats of rain and periodic sprinkles, the line march from the lineup park at 23rd Street and Madison Avenue to the disbanded site at Namecki Village fireproof buildings. Demand for the product was described as "practically unlimited."

One Shrine official remarked that "I've never seen so many children, even at a parade."

Parade officials expressed high satisfaction with the turnout. A spokesman said that "Granite City should be commended for its interest in this event as indicated by the excellent turnout."

Seventy units, including school and Anand Temple bands and drum and bugle corps, marched north on Madison Avenue from the 23rd Street starting point, beginning

"The Granite City Elevator has a capacity of 60,000 bushels."

"Being located in the center of one of the finest wheat-growing sections of the country, with excellent macadam roads centering in Granite City, and exceptional railroad shipping facilities to all points east, it handles an enormous volume of business."

Indicted on murder charge

A Madison County grand jury Thursday returned an indictment charging Dennis C. Pierce, 23, of St. Louis, with the murder of Patrick M. O'Brien, 30, of 1618 Fifth St. Madison.

May 11, near a tavern in the 1300 block of Madison Avenue, Madison.

Madison police charged Pierce with voluntary manslaughter, but the grand jury charged the charge to murder.

Another charge of battery against Pierce was rejected by the grand jury.

O'Brien's throat was slashed with a sharp object during a fight and he died a short time later. Two other men were injured during the fight.

as impossible to sell also as costlier.

The revenue method is favored by Mrs. Andrew leading to flat payments, while general obligation bonds are retired through property taxes based on assessments.

The committee has concluded that many residents do not understand the payment plan. Conceding that assessed valuation tends to rise, the officials emphasize that the sewer tax rate would decrease correspondingly, since only a fixed amount of money will be needed.

Costs will be determined on the basis of low qualified bids on construction work and bond acquisition, the committee has explained.

Q WE HAVE NEVER JOINED A CHURCH IN GRANITE CITY. WHAT WILL WE DO WHEN WE LOSE A MEMBER OF OUR FAMILY?

A A funeral service is primarily a religious experience of great spiritual significance. Its purpose is to conclude the physical existence of someone we love.

God's will has been accomplished. At this time it is a priest, minister or rabbi to whom your family should turn. He is your logical counselor by virtue of his training and dedication.

The clergy of Granite City are known for their compassion and understanding. Those who do not have a church affiliation will find many friends volunteering to help them select a clergyman. Our personnel are affiliated with many religious groups, we also can be helpful in this choice.

Temporary main GC lock closing

Effective as of late last week the 1,300-foot main lock at Locks No. 27, Granite City, was closed to vessel traffic for an eight-hour period.

The main lock will be closed high weekday at 8 a.m. for approximate eight-hour periods.

On Thursday, June 10, it was explained by James A. Peterson, chief, Operations Division, St. Louis Engineer District.

"It is presently anticipated that on June 10, depending on construction progress and river stages, the 1,300-foot main lock will be closed and the lock chamber dewatered for construction purposes," Peterson said.

During the closures, the 600-foot auxiliary lock at Locks No. 27 will remain open to vessel traffic.

Full cooperation of vessel owners and operators is requested in order to lock vessel traffic through Locks No. 27 in a safe and efficient manner during the projected closures," he concluded.

A lower guideway is being repaired. Earlier work on this project delayed river traffic this spring.

Group aiding 3 war prisoners in Angola

A defense committee has been formed for three citizens of the United States who were taken captive by units of the Cuban military serving in Angola on Feb. 13.

William Wilson, a St. Louis attorney, and Robert E. Casner Jr., a Columbus, Ohio attorney, are to represent the men at a trial scheduled before a tribunal on June 8.

Wilson, who was a dinner guest at the home of Dr. Thomas Layloff last week, said he planned to fly from St. Louis to Washington, D.C., to meet Casner and then fly to Angola.

Wilson said the Press-Record's latest information that he obtained indicates no specific charges have been made. However, on May 3, a statement credited to the Angolan minister of justice and published in the Washington Post labeled the three Americans as mercenaries.

The three men being held, new that hostilities have been terminated, are all ex-servicemen of the United States. Until going to Angola to fight for independent majority rule, they never served with any other armed force.

They even paid their own money for transportation to Angola.

When taken prisoner, the three men were uniformed and armed combatants with a recognized force fighting against the MPLA, the so-called People's Liberation Army, backed by Cuba, which has declared itself the victor.

"Our main defense will be that in accordance with the recognized principles of humane warfare, prisoners taken under combat conditions should be released and repatriated at the termination of hostilities," Wilson emphasized.

He went on to explain that information coming from Africa indicates the minister of justice of Angola is preparing for a public trial of the three Americans in anticipation of publicity throughout the world. The aim would be to show Angola's ruling regime has the capability of conducting fair and unbiased hearings regarding its enemies.

The three Americans are Gary Acker of Sacramento, Calif.; Danny Gearhart of Kensington, Md.; and Gus Grillo of Palms River, N.J.

According to Wilson, there were six men and a "recruiter" from the United States in the Angola conflict. He said the recruiter and one other individual left the country safely, two were killed and three were taken prisoner.

The men were allegedly paid $1,200 a month at the start and, due to the adverse situation, received an $800 increase.

MITCHELL BURGLARY: A color television set, a car and a motorcycle were stolen from the home and property of Robert Green, 1106 St. Thomas Road, Mitchell, it was reported last week. Entry to the home was gained by forcing the front door lock open.

Tips for car care

By DR. ROWENA LUTZ

SUE Consumer

Let's consider some points for keeping your car running at moderate costs.

After spending such a large sum of money to purchase a car, it seems wise to take good care of it. Regular maintenance will extend the life of the car, reduce pollution, improve gas mileage, help prevent breakdowns and costly repairs, and help "bring more" when ready to trade in the car.

A new car owner has special guides and recommendations that are given in the owner's manual. These books usually are quite detailed and worthy of taking the time to read. For the person who does not have a new car manual, some suggestions for general maintenance include:

Lubrication rear axle, front wheel bearings, and other parts as needed to prevent excessive wear of the parts. Check the automatic transmission fluid level and change when needed — approximately 24,000 miles.

Check the brake fluid every few thousand miles or at six-month intervals. Adding water to the radiator to maintain the coolant at proper strength. Change the coolant once a year. Check the radiator hose for weak spots. Its life expectancy is about 24,000 miles.

Checking the oil level when buying gasoline. Oil should be changed according to the manufacturer's directions, about 6,000 miles. Some persons prefer to change the oil more frequently at 4,000 miles.

Change the fuel filter every year or so.

Check the fan belt for wear and tension. Keep the water level in the battery full. Clean the top of the battery occasionally.

Rotate the tires at recommended intervals to equalize the wear. Also, check the tire pressure frequently.

Keep the car clean — wash frequently. Wash the undercarriage with a hose under pressure to clean away any accumulated salt or grime. Retouch chipped paint and remove rust from chrome.

Vacuum and clean the interior regularly. Tire care you give your car will be rewarded by a better looking, better performing automobile.

SUC halts freshman enrollment

In a step taken with what its president called "extreme reluctance," Southern Illinois University at Carbondale has halted summer term and fall semester admissions of new freshmen students.

The admissions cutoff went into effect Tuesday. All summer and fall applications received from June 1 on will be put on a waiting list.

SUC President Warren W. Brandt said, "We regret having to do it and we'd certainly like to take all the students who want to come."

"We have stretched our resources to accept as many as we can, and we have been able to accommodate some growth before taking this action."

The move came as no surprise, since Brandt had announced two months ago, at a general faculty meeting, that enrollment for the upcoming fall semester would be limited to 21,700 students. The ceiling would be imposed, he said, because of housing limitations and "insufficient resources."

In the university's budget, the 21,700 limit still represents an increase of 500 students over last fall's enrollment, highest at SUC since 1971.

Brandt said the big jump last fall (11% per cent) has been acknowledged in SUC's budget. "So far, we haven't received a single dollar for any of the additional students," he said.

The admissions cutoff affects only beginning (first time) freshmen, not graduate students continuing studies or transfers.

Students unable to enter this summer or fall will be placed on hold for any vacancies, but are being encouraged to apply for the 1977 spring semester.

Kirby Browning, SUC director of admissions and records, said 7,733 entering freshmen applications had been received as of June 1. At that time, more than 1,100 ahead of the pace at the same time last year. Of those, 6,200 have been accepted and formally admitted for next fall.

Projecting from typical "show rates" of past years, admissions analysts expect approximately 3,000 of them to arrive on the campus as enrolled students.

Browning said some other requests "already in the admissions pipeline" and dating before the cutoff will be processed. They will swell the entering freshman class to approximately 3,100.

Admissions officials projected a fall semester head count of 21,700 after examining application volumes as well as other factors, such as the "show and no show" characteristics in student enrollment patterns at SUC.

Summer and fall applicants and college counselors throughout the state are being notified of the admissions closure by SUC associate director for admissions Jerre C. Pfaff.

Said Pfaff: "Over the past two years, our freshman admission volume has increased by almost 35 per cent. Yet, our staff and other supporting services have remained almost constant."

"The university has reviewed the situation with respect to the quality of education we are offering and the number of students enrolled. After careful analysis, we have determined we are already providing for the maximum number of entering freshmen which we are able to accommodate."

services have remained almost constant.

"The university has reviewed the situation with respect to the quality of education we are offering and the number of students enrolled. After careful analysis, we have determined we are already providing for the maximum number of entering freshmen which we are able to accommodate."

Frank E. Horton, vice-president for academic affairs and research, said, "We cannot take any more students without taking on additional faculty members and we can't do that unless we are given additional resources. Several other universities in Illinois have closed admissions for similar reasons. We will continue to monitor our situation."

More tax problems

A proposal by County Treasurer George Musso to mail all tax bills directly from his office and to provide for only one installment for payment of 1975 taxes will "create chaos" in the collection of taxes in Granite City this year, according to City Treasurer Paul Rutledge.

Rutledge said Musso's plan to mail the tax bills from his office to the taxpayers, by-passing the offices of township collectors, will particularly create a problem in Granite City because of faulty addresses of taxpayers that have been programmed into the county's computer system.

In past years, the tax bills from Granite City Township residents were received by Rutledge from the county treasurer. Rutledge's office then checked the bills for proper address and mailed the bills from the local collector's office, Rutledge, as city treasurer, also is township collector.

Last year, Rutledge said, more than 300 of the tax bills received from the county had resulted in mail returns to the local office because of many of which were corrected by the local office before mailing.

There were still others that resulted in mail returns to both the local collector's office and the county treasurer's office. Approximately 12,000 billings are mailed to Granite Cityans.

"It is certain we would have the same problem this year if the county sends out the tax bills without giving us a chance to look them over first," Rutledge said.

Further complications would result from a requirement that taxes be paid this year in one installment, instead of the usual two installments. Rutledge said this matter has not yet been decided definitely. Musso said.

he is awaiting a legal opinion by the state's attorney's office as to whether he legally may reduce tax payments from two to one.

"If it is decided to go with this idea, it probably would mean that all tax bills would be due within 30 days after bills are mailed out," Rutledge said. "Since we do not yet know just when tax bills will be ready, we can't estimate now just when the pay period will be," he added.

He said that many taxpayers would have difficulty in meeting full tax bills within a single 30-day pay period.

Tax bills already are about two weeks late and probably will be two months late before they are received this year. The assessment books on which tax rates are based were delayed this year because of problems in adjusting assessment ratios under a new state law, and the office of County Clerk Evelyn Blevins still is awaiting a final multiplying factor from the state Department of Local Government Affairs.

The multiplier must be received before assessments are finally computed and tax rates established.

Tax bills usually are mailed in May and collections begun in June.

FIND CAR BURNED

Police found a station wagon behind Emerson School last week which had been burned. Officers checked to find it had been stolen overnight from the home of Claud Dash Jr., 2315 N. St. Louis.

Simple precautions will reduce risk of burglary—police chief

Granite City Police Chief Ronald J. Veizer is inviting area residents to "join the fight against burglaries."

"Every citizen can help in the Burglary Prevention Month campaign to reduce losses due to burglary," Chief Veizer said.

"Your cooperation is needed to help reduce the surge in burglaries occurring each summer when families leave their homes for vacation trips and weekend outings."

"By learning and practicing a few simple home-protection hints, residents can keep their homes from falling victim to a vicious intruder."

The month of June has been declared by Mayor Paul Schuler to be "Burglary Prevention Month" in Granite City. During this period, the police department will provide information to help residents protect their homes from burglars.

Failure to know and practice the fundamental techniques of home protection was largely responsible for the 540 burglaries committed in Granite City last year, the chief said.

Although most people didn't intentionally invite intruders to ransack their home, they might as well have hung up a sign saying, "No one's home, burglars welcome!" according to the police chief.

"A stroll around your neighborhood any day will tell you at a glance who's away, Veizer said. "Their porches will be cluttered with circulars; an accumulation of milk bottles on the stoop; an unkempt lawn; an empty garage with the door open; or a bulging mailbox."

"All of these are tip-offs that broadcast that no one's home to anyone canvassing the neighborhood."

"In the evening, most empty homes can be spotted, too—just look for the dark houses. It's a known fact that light is one of the best deterrents to crime, and yet most homeowners go out for an evening and leave their homes completely dark."

"Or, they go off for a weekend or vacation and leave the same light burning day and night, Veizer said. "No light at all, or light burning continuously is a good giveaway that no one is home."

"A simple but effective means of having light in your home every evening is by connecting an automatic timing device to one or two lamps."

"Such a timer will turn a lamp on early in the evening, and then turn it off several hours later. With lights turning on and off during the evening hours, it'll give the appearance someone is home and may avert a possible burglary attempt."

Chief Veizer went on to say that most burglars pick the easiest targets they can find.

"They want to get in, get the loot and get away as quickly as possible. Therefore, if you put several obstacles in a burglar's way, he is less likely to try to break into your home, but will seek easy pickings elsewhere."

"By observing these precautionary steps, you can reduce the possibility of a burglar selecting your dwelling as his target next time you're away."

1. Close and lock all doors, including porch, basement and garage. Use pin-tumbler cylinders locks on outside entrances and safety latches on the windows.

2. Connect a lamp to an automatic timer to turn lights on the home on and off each evening. Since noise is a deterrent, connect radio or TV to a timer.

3. Protect all doors and windows with an inexpensive, portable burglary alarm which sounds whenever someone attempts to break in.

4. Light up your porch and yard with outdoor lights to increase the likelihood that attempted burglary would be seen. These lights can also be timer-controlled, if desired.

5. Be sure all screens are fastened from the inside.

6. Never leave valuables lying around; keep them in a safety deposit box and, if you're leaving for a weekend or longer, Chief Veizer also suggests:

7. Notify your police department when you'll be leaving and how long you expect to be away.

8. Cancel all deliveries, such as the milk, laundry, cleaning, etc. Also, be sure to discontinue the newspaper or arrange to have it sent to your vacation address.

9. Have a neighbor, or your post office, hold all mail until you return.

10. Arrange with a friend to mow the lawn and sweep your sidewalk once a week. Also ask him if he'll pick up any circulars or handbills that may be left on your porch.

11. Leave your shades and blinds as you normally do; closed blinds keep the sun out, but also make an effective screen for the burglary.

There is no such thing as a burglary-proof home," said Chief Veizer. "But the suggestions listed will help to protect your home whenever you're away."

APARTMENT IS LOOTED

A $170 scanner radio, a $150 stereo and a set of oxygen tanks and hoses with a total value of $80, were stolen during a burglary at the apartment of Doug Howell, 1425 Iowa St., it was reported last week. The house was ransacked, three windows, all the light bulbs and the television screen were broken and furniture and food were thrown around the apartment.

HURT IN TRUCK CRASH

Mrs. Karol Feldon, 24, Norwalk, Calif., was injured last week when a tractor-trailer in which she was sleeping was involved in an accident and fell from the sleeping compartment. The truck was driven by her husband, William, who drove her to St. Elizabeth Hospital. X-rays were taken for pain to a hip and she was released.

DONALD D. PATRICK

Don Patrick Lions club president

The Pontoon Beach Lions Club has held its annual election of officers. Officers elected were President, Donald D. Patrick, 3819 Pontoon Road, First vice-president, Bill Luchini, 30 Lakeview Drive, Second vice-president, Keith Biggs, 4018 Kaseberg Lane, secretary, Robert Carroll, 2354 Spalding Ave., treasurer, Duane Skinner, 29 Westgate Drive, Lion Lamer Vince Thorpe, 4144 Lake Drive, and last treasurer, Loren Madison, 3817 B St.

Patrick will become the third Lions Club president, following Floyd David Mass and Jerry Henderson.

Upon taking the office of president, Patrick released the following statement:

"It will be my intentions during this year of office to achieve the following: three goals. To see that the Pontoon Beach Lions Park is maintained by the club to provide a benefit to the community."

"We are now in the legal process of straightening out some legal flaws to seek some form of regular revenue to maintain the park and other Lions activities activities for the benefit of the blind and the community."

"At this time we are in the process of application for bi-monthly bingo games which we hope will generate such revenue, and third I find the most important goal to reshape the image of the Pontoon Beach Lions Club so that it may become a club representative of the entire community."

"To achieve the last goal, I will seek the help of many people who have dropped out of the club. I hope many of them will consider coming back in," Patrick said.

Patrick is the youth counselor for the Pontoon Beach Coordinated Youth Services and has in the past served as vice-president and treasurer of the Pontoon Beach Lions Club.

He served as Pontoon Beach Juvenile Officer from 1972 to 1975.

Patrick also is the adult adviser to Pontoon Beach Explorer Post 35 and chairman of the Pontoon Beach Bicentennial Committee.

Starting in July the club's new meeting nights will be on the first and third Thursdays of each month at the Village Hall at 8 p.m. it was announced.

County praised on water quality, rural bridge repair, adult learning, home renovation plan

Madison County has received special recognition from the National Association of Counties for its Adult Learning Program, the Madison County Rural Bridge Repair Program, the Environmental Control Laboratory and its Low Interest Loan Housing Rehabilitation Program. Madison County was named a 1976 achievement award winner by NACO President Vance Webb. Achievement awards are presented to counties that have developed new programs designed to enhance or expand county services to citizens. Webb congratulated the 1976 achievement award counties for their "continuing dedication to the cause of modernized county government." He added that achievement award case studies "serve as vital assets because they provide examples of innovative programs other counties can follow."

The National Association of Counties is the chief spokesman for county government in the United States. The nation's counties represent 90 per cent of the U.S. population. County achievement awards will be presented at NACO's annual conference in Salt Lake City, Utah, June 26-July 1. The Adult Learning Program for High School Equivalency prepares adults for the General Educational Development (GED) examination, utilizing a community outreach format. Six full-time instructors are employed by the Madison County Office of Manpower Development. These certified secondary school instructors teach adults on a one-to-one individual study basis. The individualized study method has been called successful in the program, which presently has eleven class sites operating throughout Madison County. Through January, 60 ALPHE students have passed the GED examination. Participants do not pay registration fees or buy textbooks, and all necessary instructional materials are provided by the program. In the early 1970s, the Madison County Highway Department undertook a survey of county, township and municipal bridges to determine their condition. Of the 215 bridges surveyed, 70 were in deteriorated condition or did not meet minimum standards. Since these bridges provide major transportation linkages, the County Board in September 1974 passed a resolution providing that the county pay 75 per cent of the cost of repairing or replacing all bridges or culverts for which the township or municipality is eligible for county aid, instead of the traditional 50 per cent. In addition, the County Highway Department meets all engineering costs. The money is provided by the Madison County Road and Bridge Tax. Without these additional county funds, most of the deteriorated bridges could not be repaired or replaced, as most townships and municipalities do not have sufficient funds to cover the necessary expense, NACO found. The Madison County Environmental Control Laboratory was established in 1974 to test portable and non-portable water in an effort to protect the health of county residents. The laboratory works with the Illinois and federal Environmental Protection Agencies and other governmental and private groups to coordinate its efforts and information exchange. Environmental Control Laboratory technicians monitor septic effluent violations, analyze water in recreation-oriented lakes and streams, test drinking water systems of cities within the county, and provide qualified, reasonably-priced laboratory services to corporations and to other units of local government. The Environmental Control Laboratory also is involved in "906" water quality study in the Madison-St. Clair Counties area. This is a federally-funded program to study present water quality conditions and to predict, by computer analysis, future conditions. The county laboratory participates in the water quality program in both a sampling and a testing capacity, with equipment and manpower used in the field and in the laboratory. The county's Low Interest Loan Housing Rehabilitation Program is a unique county financial institution program. It is the first of its kind in Illinois, and seeks to provide a revolving fund of low interest (2 1/2 per cent) loan money to low and moderate income families within Madison County unable to qualify on their own for a housing rehabilitation loan. The loan money is to be used by these families to undertake necessary rehabilitation activities to bring their homes up to minimum housing standards.

Twenty minutes later, Scott Taft, 2251 Cleveland Blvd., reported five fishing rods and a tackle box had been taken from his unlocked garage.

HITS UTILITY POLE

Al Meyer, 61, Edwardsville, was injured when his car struck a utility pole near Troy last week. He was admitted to the intensive care unit of St. Elizabeth Hospital but was released the following day. He suffered cuts to his forehead and chin and abrasions to his chest.

Wiebe car leaves track but wins Spring Nationals; Anderson hits speed of 315

Popular young drag racer "Kansas" John Wiebe still had a broad grin on his face yesterday after a final Spring Nationals elimination run in his top fuel dragster, which finished in a field about 300 feet off the end of the pavement at St. Louis International Raceway south of Madison.

Wiebe crossed the finish line at 238 miles per hour in front of Denver, Colo., but as Wiebe pulled off his parachute it fell off the back of the dragster and onto the race track.

Despite determined efforts to halt the machine in the shuffle area, Wiebe was unable to avoid going off the end and into the field in what drag racers term "a trip into the bonobos."

He escaped injury in the jarring ride, but there was some damage to the front of the dragster.

His smile quickly returned, however, as he was presented the first place check for his final run of 6.12 seconds on the quarter mile.

The crowd, estimated by promoters at 10,000, also witnessed the fastest run ever recorded at St. Louis International Raceway as Vern Anderson piloted his American Dream machine rocket over the quarter mile in 4.90 seconds, finishing at 315 mph.

Anderson's parachute operated properly, but he had difficulty halting the machine in the shuffle area and came to a stop on the outer edge of the asphalt.

Yesterday's eliminations climaxed the three-day Spring Nationals of Drag Racing at the local drag strip facility. The event was sponsored by the American Hot Rod Association as one of only 10 Grand American Series races across the country each year.

Many of the best-known professional drag racers competed in the races.

Popular funny car driver Gene "The Snowman" Snow of Fort Worth, Tex., ran consistently well through the elimination brackets but was narrowly topped by Tommy Hoover in his Showtime Charger from Minneapolis.

Minn. in the championship race.

Snow covered the course in 6.54 seconds and hit 211.27 mph at one point but Hoover finished first with a 6.53-second run at 307.48 mph.

Ken DeDrover of Malvern, Pa. driving the "Grumpy's Toy Vega" of Bill "Grumpy" Jenkins won the pro-stock category by defeating Jerry Haas of St. Louis. Haas covered the quarter-mile in 12.5 seconds and DeDrover's faster run of 8.77 seconds put him well in the lead and he crossed the finish line at 156 mph.

Gary Shane of Wichita, Kan., won the pro-comp class in a dragster at 7.17 seconds and 191.49 mph. Doug Moody of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, was second in a Corvette.

Walt Nielsen, Minneapolis, Minn., won top-comp with a run of 7.17 seconds and 191.49 mph. Gary Duckworth of Collinsville was second in a Pinto.

Tommy Johnson, Fort

Madison, Iowa, won in modified street at 10.94 seconds and 161.36 mph, trailed by Frank Scarlett, Lenora, Kan.

Gary Grame, Overland Park, Kan., was the super street champion, with a final time of 12.97 seconds and Bill Mitchell, Kirksville, Mo., was runner-up.

Don Spencer, Houston, Tex., won the super-stock title in an easy solo run as his opponent failed to appear for the finals. Larry Carter of St. Louis, topped the large stock eliminator field and Oliver Curry of Edwardsville was the quickest in bike eliminator.

St. Louis International Raceway has been selected for two of this year's 10 Grand American Series races. The second major race here will be the annual Gateway Nationals in August.

John Scott lost a nine-bitter and then Pat Harris was beaten on a ten-bitter effort in the finale. Mercer tallied a first in the first, two in the third and four in the fourth but Van's got two in the first, seven in the fourth and four in the sixth.

Harrington hammered Bob Scott and Greenwald each got three hits.

Greenwald totaled two home runs for the game and Bob Scott's three hits included a homer.

NEW TRACK RECORD for sprint cars, set last week at Tri-City Speedway by Ron Milton of Jacksonville, Ill. He is shown after completing the half-mile dirt oval in 22.28 seconds. The qualifying run, however, burned a piston in the car's engine and Milton was unable to compete in the remainder of the night's program.

Indy driver here but Kirkpatrick victorious

Even a surprise appearance by Indianapolis 500 race driver Jim Oppeerman at Tri-City Speedway last week at Tri-City Speedway.

The night was highlighted by three- and four-car high-speed chases, with the sprint cars running only inches apart around the half-mile dirt oval.

Through the entire 35-lap feature, the front four cars changed positions several times, but stayed bunched together.

At the checkered flag, Kirkpatrick's car was less than one foot in front of the sprinter of Chuck Milam of Freeman Spur, Ill.

Doug Wolfgang of Des Moines, Iowa, finished third in the feature, followed by Danville's Bubby Jones, who presented one of the most remarkable driving exhibitions Tri-City fans have seen.

Jones started in the pole position for the feature and pulled into an immediate lead with Kirkpatrick close behind.

After 17 laps, Kirkpatrick's drafting caused him to slam into Jones' auto, pushing it against the outside wall in the third turn.

The accident broke the hydraulics in Jones' power steering and he was forced to struggle with the sprinter's steering wheel the remainder of the race, still staying within inches of Wolfgang's car and even challenging him several times.

Jones shared another handicap with Oppeerman as both brought their United States Auto Club-sanctioned sprint cars to the track.

The track's USAC limits the engines to 302 cubic inches while Kirkpatrick, Amati, Wolfgang and others were using the larger, 350 cubic inch engines.

The difference in horsepower was clear in the first heat race as the Amati shot past the Jones on the inside early in the heat and defeated them with about 30 yards to spare.

Oppeerman was second, with Jones third.

Phil Howe, Jacksonville, Ill., won the second heat race, trailed by Eddie Leavitt of Kearney, Mo., and Sammy Swindell of Memphis, Tenn.

The third heat went to Cliff Cockrum of Benton, Ill., with second and Frank Hollingsworth of Paris, Ill., third.

The trophy dash, pitting the six fastest qualifiers, was won by Kirkpatrick, followed by Tom Corbin of Carrollton, Mo. Amati finished third.

Ron Milton of Jacksonville, Ill., who set a new track record of 22.28 seconds during qualifying, experienced a burned piston in his sprinter's engine and was unable to compete in the event.

"I figured I had one more good run left on that engine and we used it in qualifying to set a new track record. But that was 'all she wrote' for the night," Milton said later.

Sonny Smyser of Glenwood, Mo., won the semi-feature race, followed by Cockrum and Larry Curtis of Silsboro, Ind.

Despite a poorer than expected showing, Oppeerman noted that he had not raced at Tri-City since 1971 and was unfamiliar with the track or its "groove," the route around the track where the best traction can be obtained.

He said he enjoyed the track and people, and intends to return here for the next spring car program July 13.

The night's racing program also included racing by the sportsman class autos, including a "double O" race where the cars alternated between the quarter-mile and the half-mile, nearly colliding at the two mile-over points.

Finishing first through third in the first heat were Don Alfaro of Granite City, Jim Powell of Quincy, and Bert Griffin of East Alton.

Granite Cityans finished in the top three spots in the second heat, led by Dean Aerie and followed by Chuck Milam and Steve Kraus.

Granite City drivers also dominated the double O feature, earning the top three spots and five of the top six.

Jack Yates won the event after protesting the first-place car of Jim Powell of Quincy.

Track officials exacted the protest and upheld the protest, noting that Powell's engine included headers which were not allowed in the sportsman class.

Finishing behind Yates were his brother, Larry Yates, and close Milan, also of Granite City. Greg Dillender of Manchester, Mo., was fourth, followed by first-year driver Rick Jones of Granite City and Steve Kraus, also of Granite City.

Larry Yates had the fastest qualifying time with 17.27 seconds around the quarter-mile.

Track promoter Ed Bloom announced that the St. Louis Auto Racing Association midjet cars will join the late model class cars for a triple-header race here Saturday, June 12.

The late model stock cars and sportsman cars also will compete this Saturday night.

Post 435 ends enemy rally, gains 4-3 win

Glen Carbon American Legion Post 435, after suffering a 6-1 setback to a well-banded Pine Lawn-Normandy, Mo. team, bounced back to top by Alton 4-3 in a District 22 encounter here Thursday.

Post 435, 1-0 in league play and 2-3 overall, took advantage of timely hitting by Joe Gulash and Doug Rains and two wild pickoff throws by the Alton hurler to break on top 3-0 in the first frame.

The Glen Carbon pitcher, Tony Stajduhar, aided by an unerring defense, shut down Alton for five innings. Alton scored in the top of the sixth but Post 435 got the run back in the home half on Brian Sikes' triple and Jody Fallon's single.

Alton rallied in the seventh cutting the deficit to 4-3 before Stajduhar struck out the final batter, stranding the potential tying and winning runs on second and third.

Stajduhar struck out 12, allowing five hits.

Tonight, with Bill Dickerson on the hill, Post 435 will host East St. Louis at 6 o'clock. Tomorrow, Glen Carbon will travel to Carlyle for an 8 p.m. game.

Post 113 hosted Europa, a St. Louis Legion team at Wilson Park Sunday, losing 10-5 and 5-1 to the Missourians.

Coach Conrad Champion said, "Our pitcher, John Lakin, pitched well but tired in the top of the eighth of the opener when Europa got five runs."

Evans hit a long triple in the third inning, tying the score 3-3. Champion, Lakin and Muehlhede were among the top hitters in the first game.

Europa had a four-run third inning in the second game, adding a final run in the seventh.

Paul Evans and Jim Goodyear jointly pitched a five-hitter, Evans taking the loss. The only local run came in the bottom of the sixth inning when Eldon Warfield singled and Muehlhede drove him home. Post 113 totaled three hits.

"I am not too concerned over winning or losing in our exhibition games," Champion noted. "I wanted every one to get a chance to play and show what he can do, so that we can put the best nine forward when we get into the league games."

Braves split twinnish

The Granite City Braves split a doubleheader here Sunday with Belleville West, dropping the first game 12-8 but then edging the visitors 6-5.

In their first game, six of the West runs were unearned. Belleville gained 15 hits and committed three errors.

The Braves had six errors and six hits.

Belleville scored in every inning but the sixth, including four in the eighth inning.

The Braves scored two runs in the fifth inning, four in the sixth and two in the seventh. Tom Mahl was the losing pitcher.

Dan Fichte's single, walks to Brian Mehan and Jon Dillard and an error accounted for the fifth Braves runs.

In the sixth, an error, four walks and hits by Larry Meagy and Dan Manogian aided the attack. Heagy doubled and Tony Elliott and Klarich singled in the seventh.

In the five-run Braves outburst in the second game, Vic Griffin, Dave Klarich and Claude Oheanlian walked, Dillard singled, Dan Shaw reached base on a fielder's choice, Elliott reached on an error and Klarich came to bat again and singled.

Mrs. Levy, a 119 average bowler, scored a 136 high game.

Here after interview at Oxford

Katherine C. Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin J. Hill and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hill, has been visiting her family in Granite City. Miss Hill has just returned from Oxford University, England, where she was flown by the Rhodes Trustees to be interviewed as a possible Rhodes Fellow.

The Rhodes Fellowship for Women, three of which are awarded annually in worldwide competition, is a two-year research fellowship that allows its recipient to teach at Oxford. Miss Hill currently teaches at Columbia University, New York, where she is a graduate student in the Department of English and Comparative Literature.

She is writing a doctoral dissertation on Virginia Woolf. Since Miss Hill's dissertation requires work with Woolf manuscript letters, while in England she also traveled to Sissinghurst Castle, Kent, to read documents that Nigel Nicolson, editor of the Woolf letters, has there.

Miss Hill graduated from Xavier High School for Girls in St. Louis and Fordham University in New York.

SIUE lamp taken

A student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has been charged with stealing the lamp head from one of the large lights which illuminated the bicycle and pedestrian trace between the main campus and Tower Lake Apartments. University police filed a charge of petty theft against Rocky A. Logan, 19, a native of Romania who lives at Tower Lake Apartments. Police alleged three were observed during the weekend walking along the trace with a head from one of the lamps.

Area's 10-year transit needs to be determined

Nelson Hagauer, chairman of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council, the St. Louis metropolitan area's regional planning agency, has announced the signing of a contract with a consulting team to conduct the agency's year-long, $480,000 mass transit program.

The St. Louis firm of Modern Urban Systems Technology, Inc., Jenkins-Fleming, Architects, and George L. Crawford and Associates will handle computer analysis, environmental impact, and traffic engineering, respectively.

W. V. Rouse and Associates, of Evanston, Ill., will carry out the transit needs analysis, and Allen Hernandez Associates of San Francisco will assist in the citizen participation program.

Heading the St. Louis program for DMJM will be C. M. "Max" Gillis, former general manager of the Southern California Rapid Transit District (Los Angeles).

John Cromwell, who will be coordinating the project for the Gateway Council, says the program is intended to determine the need for transit service in the region and then to select from the transit improvements best suited to meet those needs—those which can be completed and placed in operation within a two-year time span.

The three major activities the transit needs analysis, the transit alternatives analysis, and the community coordination program, are designed with this objective in mind, he added.

The transit needs analysis, the first of its kind in this country, is designed to elicit information not only about the general transit needs of the area, but also on the special needs of those people, known as transit dependents, who must depend on public transit for transportation.

The needs analysis will begin with a series of interviews with community leaders to determine their perceptions of both the area's general needs and how to reach the area's transit-dependent population.

Next, a region-wide telephone survey will provide information on trip characteristics and the need for transit in the area.

The last phase of the analysis will focus on the transit dependent populations identified by the preceding phases. Once areas with large concentrations of transit-dependent people have been identified, face-to-face interviews will be conducted in these areas to determine such people's special transit needs.

The next part of the study is the transit alternatives analysis.

Once the area's needs are known, what technologies exist to satisfy these needs? First, existing technologies will be reviewed to select the more practical ones.

Next, selected systems will be analyzed in respect to St. Louis's special assets and problems—to develop the system or, more probably, several alternative systems, best suited to this area.

This will be analyzed in conjunction with the Bi-State Development Agency's current plan to see what revisions a new plan would involve.

The final result will be a transportation plan, incorporating the best aspects of the current plan with those of successful plans elsewhere, Cromwell said.

The third part of the program will be the citizen participation program. Since not all St. Louis area citizens will be interviewed, provision will be made for input from interested citizens not contacted by interviewers.

For this purpose, DMJM will divide the area into subregions and hold workshops at critical stages in each. DMJM also has confronted the problem of citizens who are interested in transit, but not in attending workshops. Its solution:

"Mobile workshop" booths will be set up in public areas—libraries, civic centers, etc.—for a few days following the meetings to collect opinions from people who prefer to participate in this manner.

Ainad Oriental Band wins 1st place award

Twenty-two members of Ainad Shrine Temple Oriental Band brought home the first-place trophy from the annual Jamboree of the Great Lakes Association of Shrine Oriental Bands which concluded Sunday at Cincinnati, Ohio.

Band Director Avery Schermer said 600 bandmen in 22 bands from Shrine temples bordering the Great Lakes in the United States and Canada competed at the annual event.

The Ainad Shrine Temple Oriental Band was formed in the summer of 1967 as a unit of the Tri-City Shrine Club. In December of the same year, the band was chartered by Ainad Shrine Temple.

Originally its membership consisted solely of Shriners from the Quad-City area, but now includes Shriners from Wood River, Edwardsville, Collinsville, Fairview Heights, Belleville and East St. Louis.

At the jamboree, the bands first paraded through downtown Cincinnati, arriving at the Netherland Hilton Hotel, where each musical group appeared in competition in order of its position as a marching unit. The Ainad Band was the third to compete in the hotel's Hall of Mirrors.

Syrian Temple of Cincinnati was host for the jamboree, headed by Charles Burgess, band association president.

Schermer, current first vice-president who will succeed Burgess in the top post at Dayton, Ohio, in September, said Ainad Temple will be host at next year's jamboree, scheduled June 9 to June 12 at Stouffer's Riverfront Inn, St. Louis.

The Ainad Oriental Band has appeared in the contest six times, winning a first place award in 1973 and two seconds and one third place trophy in other years. Last year, the local Shriner musicians failed to place for the first time since the group was formed.

TRUCK BURGLARY

Robert Fowler reported that between 5:30 p.m. Thursday and 5 a.m. Friday while his cab for his tractor-trailer truck was parked at 1800 Cleveland boulevard, a citizen band radio valued at $185 was taken.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID SENIOR whose wedding was solemnized at Grace Baptist Church. Formerly Miss Phyllis Ann Adams, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry L. Adams 2573 Buenger Blvd.

Phyllis Ann Adams and David Senior are wed

The wedding of Miss Phyllis Ann Adams, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry L. Adams, 2573 Buenger Blvd. and David L. Senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Senior, 4124 North Drive, was solemnized on May 29 at Grace Baptist Church. Floral arrangements of blue-tipped carnations and pom-poms decorated the altar and burning tapers in tall candelabras illuminated the sanctuary for the double ring ceremony performed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Paul Fife, Senior, Pastor. Followed by the Lord's Prayer accompanied by organist Kevin Rogers.

A reception was hosted in the church fellowship hall immediately following the service with Miss Leslie Childers at the head of the guest book. Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Adams wore a gown fashioned with a Chantilly lace bodice with a high neckline, long sleeves and an organza skirt. Her veil of bridal illusion was secured with a Juliet cap and she held a colonial bouquet of white roses, blue tipped carnations, baby's breath, greenery and festooned with blue ribbons.

Paid length blue dotted swiss sleeveless gown designed with high rise waistline and worn with short bolero jacket and white picture hats were selected by the bride attendants.

Mrs. Cheryl Duff served as matron of honor, with bridesmaids Tamara Mertz and Janet Adams and junior bridesmaids Susan Cox and Rachel Adams, both cousins of the bride.

They carried floral arrangements similar to the bride bouquet. Candace Senior, a niece of the groom, was the flower girl. She was dressed in a white satin frock accented with blue trim and also wore a white hat embellished with flowers and tied with a blue ribbon.

Mark Adams, a brother of the bride, served as ringbearer. Attending the groom as best man was Carl McKay, Jerry and Bruce Senior, the groom's brothers. Rich Fritts, Mike Mervett and Bill Radford completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers. Handlighters were Kathy Westbrook, a niece of the groom and Jeffrey Cox, the bride's cousin.

Parents of the groom served a dinner to members of the wedding party in the church fellowship hall after the rehearsal.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Adams selected a floor length gown of pink chiffon over crepe designed with a ruffled skirt edged in lace and worn with a matching capelet. Mrs. Senior, mother of the groom, chose a long mint green crepe dress complemented with a floral chiffon cape. Both mothers wore wrist corsages of white roses.

The newly married couple are residing here after a wedding trip to Branson, Mo. Both are graduates of Granite City High School North. The former Miss Adams is employed by Kerr-McGee Chemical Corp. Madison. The groom attends Belleville Area College and works at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride, wore a long ivory organza gown fashioned with a fitted bodice accented ruffled trim, high neckline and long tapered sleeves of Chantilly lace.

The beaded lace encircled the hemline and formed a decorative panel on the skirt front.

A lace Juliet cap secured her triple tiered mantilla veil bordered in matching lace. She held a bouquet of white baby mums, yellow rose buds accented with lily of the valley and greenery.

Mrs. Cheryl Pyle, a sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She chose a formal length yellow polyester and cotton wrinkle dress trimmed with ivory lace at the V-neckline and on the full cape sleeves.

Her ivory picture hat had yellow streamers and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow mums and greenery with yellow ribbons.

Bridesmaids Miss Terri Moran and Miss Diane Chrisman, a cousin of the bride, groom as best man. Todd Reiter and Harry Smith, brothers of the bride couple served as groomsmen.

Seating the guests were Mark Cook and Mike Staicoff, cousins of the groom.

Guests were received by the newly married couple at a reception held in the church Fellowship Hall, after the service. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reiter entertained the bride party at a rehearsal dinner on Friday evening, in their home. Miss Nina Faioli attended the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding,

Mrs. Smith, selected a long pastel blue knit dress complemented with a matching shell knit jacket and corsage of yellow roses.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Reiter, was attired in a full length apricot knit gown and wore a corsage of white roses.

Both young people graduated from Granite City High School North. The former Miss Smith attended Belleville Area College and was employed as a bookkeeper at Granite City Sheet Metal Works, Inc.

The groom attended Millikin University and is presently serving with the U.S. Air Force.

Rule against shifting Transportation budget

Attorney General William J. Scott has advised Illinois Comptroller George Lindberg in a legal opinion that a section of an appropriations act authorizing the Department of Transportation to reallocate up to eight per cent of its total appropriation is unconstitutional.

Section 1 of Public Act 79-257, effective in July 1975, authorized reallocation of up to eight per cent between line items of the department's appropriation, including personal services, offices or districts.

Scott's opinion noted that Section 1 of PA 79-257 allowed to stand would amend section 13.2 of "An Act in Relation to State Finance." It therefore violates section 8(d) of Article IV of the 1970 Constitution, which provides in part: "Appropriation bills shall be limited to the subject of appropriations."

The attorney general cited a number of court decisions which have held that appropriation bills must not change substantive law.

He said Section 1 of PA 79-257 changed the finance statute by raising the transfer percentage above two per cent of the total appropriation, by including personal services in funds transfer, and by eliminating the requirement that funds transfers be approved by the governor. Scott advised Lindberg that in spite of the unconstitutionality of Section 1, the balance of PA 79-257 stands as law.

He also told Lindberg that he could honor requests for relocation of appropriations by the Department of Transportation that conform to the provisions of "An Act in Relation to State Finance."
